

The Taste Section – The Advertiser 19th November 2014

Serafino Bellissimo Montepulciano 2014

The Bellissimo range of Mediterranean varieties has yielded this charming, new-vintage red that originates from central and southern Italy. It's pretty easy going, fleshy, with a ripe crimson fruit spectrum and a neat little twist of licorice lingering on the tongue, all underpinned with fine, dusty tannins that work the wine towards savoury and spicy in the finish.

Tony Love - 4 Stars