Serafino BDX 2013

I'm guessing the BDX refers to Bordeaux. A tasty number with bold flavours, yet elegant and with everything in harmony. It's a blend of cabernet sauvignon, merlot, carmenere and cabernet franc – a fleshy, lipsmacking McLaren Vale red ... dark berries, a dollop of chocolate, cherries and a light hand with the oak. It's silky and well behaved and downright good drinking. $26
